The opening in wheat was wild and un sattled with first trades at 1/61/4 cent de cline but it sold off instantly 1/61 cent, and many selling orders could not be exe cuted until considerable decline had ocurred. The price railied 1600% cent, sed off %@% cent, advanced %, broke %. anged some and closed near the bottom. There was free selling at the start by all classes of traders, the largest commission houses all having large selling orders, and the elevator interests also disposed of larger quantities, as did Pardridge, who has not traded extensively of late. The market, was largely "long" and not in shape for liquidation, and the decline was sudden and in jumps of 1/2 to 1/2 cent. Foreigners were said to have led the selling and New York opened weak and led in the decline as much as it did in the advance of yesas much as it did in the advance of yesterday. ### ENGLISH SHEEP BREEDERS. The Way in Which They Care for and Manage Their Flocks.

Sheep farmers in England do not all follow the same methods of care and management of their flocks, says John Jackson, of Ontario. In some sections where they have shaded permanent pastures the sheep are allowed to roam at large for a portion of the season. In other parts of the country they are folded in hurdles summer and winter. In some cases they are folded on grass land, and moved every day; in others they are kept in folds, the grass being cut and fed in racks-in this case they are moved at regular intervals, so that in either case by this system the land is regularly and evenly manured. And again, in other cases, the land is and from $2.00@3.00 took the bulk of the cows and bulls. Sales of Texas cattle were cut forward of the fold, and also fed in largely at $2.00@2.50 for cows and bulls. Sales of Texas cattle were the rocks. Another thing the flock tions. When the flag fell after a long the racks. Another thing the flock tions. When the flag fell after a long and at $2 70,63.30 for steers.

The log market was active and strong for a brief time in the morning and was quiet and weak fur her along. The range of quotations was $4.60,65. Not much pales and buy the best they can get. I know of a breeder that sold last year at the Circucester ram sale forty rams that brought enough money to pay the rent on a good farm of eight hundred acres, and the most of these rams would be bought for crossing. But to determine just how far we can follow the English practice of management in our flocks we must first consider the different circumstances in which we are placed-our hotter climate in summer, the more intense cold in winter, the smallness of our flocks, cost of labor, value of the product, etc. Yet in many ways, to a certain extent at least, we would do well to follow their example in the care and management of their flocks. And, while the hot sun and severe frost may be against us to some extent. our climate as a whole is ahead of the English climate for the bealth and growth of sheep. Old Bullion-What? Marry an actor? A poor, miserable, underpaid, overworked - tain's Story.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.-The British bark Inverory, Captain Willcox, arrived today, sixty days from New Castle, N. S. W., with a most remarkable story of mutiny and crime. Just before the vessel eft New Castle a man calling himself Dr. Armitage applied for passage for himself and wife to San Francisco. Captain Willcox gladly took them on board as his own wife needed the services of a physician. About two weeks ago at sea Mrs. Willox gave birth to a child and Armitage officiated as surgeon. He used instruments in such a manner that the child died, and the captain as well as the child died, and the captain, seeing he was unskilled, or-dered him away from his wife. Armitage appealed to the crew, telling them that the captain was killing his wife. The crew, led by the mate, mutinied, and the captain led by the mate, mutined, and the captain after being drugged was locked up. He managed to get out just in time to see his wife die. Several times he was imprisoned by the crew, but he managed to brea t out. Armitage's real name is Eustice Alexander. He is said to have deserted his wife and baby in Sydney, and fled to New Castle with another woman, where he boarded the Inverury. The bark, crew and passengers are now in custody of the port warden and the police made arrests this afternoon.

gers are now in custoily of the port warden and the police made arrests this afternoon. Captain Wilcox gave the following account of the troubles on board his ship:

While the ship was lying at New Castle, N. S. W., my wife suggested to me that she come to San Francisco on the Mariposa and I could join her on my arrival. I accordingly wrose to my brother in Tacoma, and he was to come to meet her. Before sailing time, however, Armitage came to me with a letter of introduction from agents of the ship and I agreed to take him and his wife, whom he described as a trained nurse. After we had got out a few weeks I found that the first mate spent all the time he was on watch talking

SPORTING.

Clever Colt Contest. NEW YORK, June 19 .- It was get-away stakes for two-year-olds and the Belmont delay. Writzer, the favorite, took the lead, closely followed by Sir Gallahad and Connoisseur and they raced in that posi-tion until the dip was reached when the latter wanted to quit, but Garrison began with whip and spurs and the cost cos-cluded to go on. At the last eighth Waltzer had enough and could not go any further in spite of Griffin's hard work Then Garrison on Connoisseur and Simon Utica challenged Sir Gallahad and a furious drive ensued between the three leading jockeys in the east. The colts finished well together, Garrison fairly finished weil together, Garrison fairly lifting his meunt across the line and ready to fall. Taral shook Sims off and got second place. Utica struggled along in third piace. The Belmout stakes proved a great disappointment, for Domino declined the issue with Henry of Navarre, and the latter had no trouble in winning from Prig and Assignee.

As it was he left the bunch six lengths at the last turn and tomped down the stretch Jackey Thorpe with his mouth open went east tonight to ride in the suburban.

ONE CAT THAT SWIME Takes to the Water as Philosophically of "The common supposition is that eats are averse to the water," said a citizen of Baltimore to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat man recently, "but I once saw a cat that took to the water as naturally as a dog. I happened to be erossing the Mississippi river in a rowboat one day, when the man who was rowing me across suddenly said: 'Did you ever see a cat swim, sir?' at the same time pointing over the stern of the boat. On turning around I saw a large black and white cat swimming about in the middle of the river. Or inquiry I found that the cat was in the habit of swimming every morning from the shore to an island in the river. where it visited a lot of fishing net that were spread out there to dry, and picked up the dead fish, and also hunted for rats, which abounded on the island. After becoming thoroughly satisfied the cat would commit himself again to the water and swim house. The next day I determined to try and witness the performance again, but I arrived at the waterside just in time to see him return from his morning's hunt. While swimming the cat kept most of his body out of the water, his tail being held erect in the air like the must of a ship

On the Cunard wharf at Liverpool, one day, an Irishman, evidently an intending emigrant, was noticed looking long and wonderingly at a great anchor that was lying on the landing. He lingered so long, and made such close observation that the man in charge finally came up and asked him he was loading around there "Sir, I'm not loading at all," said the Irishman, with an air of offende dignity, "but, if I stay here a wee I'll get a look at the fellow that's abl to handle that pick."
